Abstract: In article was written manuscript books, their sale, and book and designate for librarian position was made recommendation petition and candidates by functionaries to prime-minister of Bukhara emir. And calligraphers demand and wish too.

Key words: bookbinder, gold affair painter, an expert in production of stamps, front writer, catalogue, glossary, interpolation. Paper – silk, semi silk, cotton, semi silk paper.

As you know, the letters have traditionally been a communication tool not only for the centuries, but also among the peoples of Central Asia. Therefore, letters of some historic people are included in their personal collections as a rare work. Among the rare works of Sadri Zio's personal collection are the letters of Jami, Navoi, Khoja Akhror, Hussein Baykara and other historical personalities and memoirs of his contemporaries, as well as letters and memories of Ahmad Donish.

The letters we read are different in content and form: manuscripts, books, books and booklets are recommended by officials, writing petitions to their neighbors, as well as requests and wishes of book stories.

By the beginning of the 20th century, the work on selling rare manuscripts, donating and collecting them from public to public libraries began to be widespread. We will be able to find out the essence of such an essay analyzing the letters written to the Prime-minister of the Emir of Bukhara.

In particular, when Fayzulla Khodjaev was sent to his father's post, the Bukhara Emirates sent a letter to his compatriot and said that he had sent several rare manuscripts and 400 papers of books. I have 1 book of Khamsai Navoi in his book Yunus Khodja Karminagi, 1 Lisan ut-Tayr book, 1 Mahbub al-Kulub book, how many notebooks and how many books and how many notebooks of Bedil's dynasty one of his books, and one more Mahazin al-Maarif and the Shariah Ghulshan to the masters' office. I lean on their gentlemen and let them go. Anyway, they send money to the higher state. Because of the fact that I have been treated for laughter, I find this to be a blessing [1, page 1].

In the letters of Ishakkhan after praying for Mirza Abdulfattahon's request, he was praying that the blessed continents, along with the fragmnts of the sacred sites, came in the hands of Eshon Qori, a glorious "Javohir ul-Kuranaan"(Book) [2, page].

In his second letter to Mirza Abdulfattah, if you see Kashf al-Zuand find out Mabsuti Sarka E's, your prayers will hurry to bring the book Mabsut to the reader [page3, 4]. Our analysis of the observations shows that Iskhakhan was a bookseller, educated person.

Mirza Kobil Salihov, the brother of the writer, wrote to the librarian in his letters to the librarian, who will pay the money back from the director's Moscow trip. 16 of the copied manuscript books were in the list of members of the book committee. Manuscripts were purchased at a price of 250 sums. The books were purchased by Abdullah and the remaining 16 books were sent back.

If Mirza Kamar's three books are available in the reading room at 200 sum, but you cannot wait for the book's director to arrive in Moscow, you will be returned 11 books. Peace is with you! [4, page 2]

A letter from his friend Bobokalonov Salih to Mirza Abdulfattah Makhdiev stated that he was a buyer for the book. Kamalov's letter indicates that Labi wrote that the books in Devonbegi were sent to Makhdum Sharif by Tillakhodjaev. Yakubov's main task was to compile a list of books and write down the name of the books. The receipt of the books is also provided. Sharif Makhdum also has the book "Alif layyla", one of which is a collection. The book Mavlavi Gulkakhi, by Kamolov, is a bookstore and bookstore of ancient Oriental manuscripts in the palace library, at the beginning of the 20th century, by Muhammad Kamal Muzaffarov, who currently unites all the libraries in Bukhara, offering a large library for the public [5, 98-99]. However, his suggestion was ignored. End [page 6, page 1].

There are so many letters of this kind, and the authors of some letters are not mentioned: in our next letter, one of the important raw materials of the calligraphy is the ink.

Mirza Abdulfatton, the fugitive protagonist, the happiest person, the Futuvvat target!

Brother, merciful! If you ask about this ink, they have sent the ink. Makhdum Faroisi's ink should be yellow, and when the color is slightly darker, the color is blue. The reason is that no matter how delicate I was writing; I did not have to be proud of pure. I made a mistake without even knowing it. So do not cut or scratch a piece of paper from the top of the paper. Do not know if he is a black color? Or is my address empty? Anyway, there is no reason why it does not come to the fore.

It is clear from the ideas of Mirza Muhammadjonbek that it is very difficult to write it without correcting it. Thanks thousands of thousands of mercy, thanks to the divine epistles of good-natured epistles, so many prose books have written books in a straight line. Each letter of the letter is similar to that of a tree. Good News from the past! Of course, each one of them has the right to possess spiritual and spiritual status. Their stories reveal their miraculousness. Because none of them had made a letter in the case of an imprint. However, Mirza Ahmadjon, the mercy of God, is one of the few writings of this century, and his message is the same as Miramid (Mir imad and a powerful calligrapher in science).

How long have I been writing a book in the style of Mirza Ahmadjon? "Look at the difference, where it is from before"! Nevertheless, a sentence (a drop-down book) is a divine one. It cannot be obtained through the addition of sausage. I understood that I spend my time studying books like "whoever seriously wants and finds it" Vassalom.

In a second letter: He did not appear before Abdulfatahhon in dealing with these matters, so the letter owner was forced to write the following statements:

O holder of the promise, you will find life without end!

Do you still have letters of interest from the Greeks to Bukhara?

There is no one who can eradicate this difficulty.

If you have enough of any way on the way, you will be able to get out of your hands.

“Being in a state of intoxication, I am not ashamed of your preaching.

If there is heat from the maxilla and ice is damaged, pure ink will exist.

Send ink like musk, so I can write books with him.

When you read my beautiful letter I hope you make good prayers.

If it is written with this inaccurate ink, the book may become sinful.

If there are thousands of blessings and blessings that remain unpaid in ink, maybe I'll be able to see a line of scratch on the nickname of an ink.

If the pencil is on the side, the hinges will be just like the beautiful flower bands.

Look at this ink color, my hat looks like rags.

Let us pray with piety and sincerity, and pray for the truth.

Always my tongue moistened with prayer, always be better than everyone else.”

This is an article from the Sierra Leone article, page 7, page 6-7.

The meaning of the letters is that the book is very important in human life. There is no wish to repeat the whole mind, ability and skill to carry it. The conclusion is that in the creation of beautiful manuscripts, good writing, good letter writing perfect writing, knowledge, talent (even if it is divine), power and patience. The calligrapher, who carries letters at the level of art, indicates that his profession is not only a master, but also a great talent. At the same time, there is valuable information about the writings of that period.

The letters included not only the issue of sending books to one or another but also the appointment of a library director at the madrassah (library manager). The bookkeeper (library directorate) is considered to be a very prestigious position. He is responsible for accepting brochures and books by the responsible officials of the emir's library, the writers, the ministers and the scholars, and appointed with the consent of the latter. Subsequently, subordinate officials provided their recommendations and provided information on these individuals. The libraries have manuscripts on various themes, even the manuscripts and luggage books that are stored there are also available for sale. In one such booklet:

Dear Mirza Abdulfattahon, Mirza Mahdiyah!

After the salutation, I wish to inform you that the poor person was thankful for the health and well-being of the poor. Rahim Khalifa has come, I am glad to hear your health news. Two or three trips and travelling back. So I wrote down my health and sent him to the ministry. Now, in this (that is, I), I was compelled to make a list of books in the central library accompanied by Qori ibod. Some of our lives are different, and sometimes we are upset. However, you are always asking for a visit to Mirzo Iskak and mirza Muhammadjon. My God, be prestigious wherever you are. I say to Mir Sadriddin, salute me. It is best to go for a two or three-day stay in the spring. End [page 8, 5].

In the second letter, the author has a claim. Name in the Name of God, the Almighty! Amongst the people, Mulla Abdushukur is the Grandmadman of the Sultan, the pride of the sultans, the assistant to the nation and religion, my Majesty, God Almighty, Mulla Ismailhoja was a reader of Registan madrassah. His role as the chairmain of the Kitab region was abandoned by the blessing of Abdulaziz Han. Instead of bookstore, Mirzo-uriddin was looking for a worthy candidate from the Taliban, who agreed to work with his own wishes. For this reason, the son of Mulla Avazkhoja Sadr, the educated scholar Mulla Jalolkhon, deserves to have this free vacancy. He hopes for your blessing. The monthly salary will be 14 golden [9, page 1].

The booklet is one of the high-level positions, the most prominent educators of the madrassa are recommended for this purpose. In the Cairo letter of Akhund Mohammad Arifkhoja, the same is true of another person, as is the content of the letter above. After the usual greeting, the main topic is: Mulla Abdulhay was handed over to the son of the cousin Cuban mufti to manage the Govkushan madrassah. It is well-known that the place of reading in the madrasah is now empty, as it is intended to be a bridegroom for Mulla Sirojiddin.

Mirzo Addulfattoh Mirzo Muhammadizoda Mahdizoda Mulla Mohammaden Eshon, son of Akhund Mohammad Arifkhoja, enjoyed the highest public service, and Babayi was taken to the side of the Nonkash court from the supreme state. My Excellency, I hope that Muhammad Haniyah Eshon (the son of Akhund Mohammad Arifkhoja) will appoint to this vacant hovchush reader's office. My son, the son of Akhund, who died in Mullah, and my younger son-in-law, succeeded in praying for the supreme superiors if my son Muhammad –ul-mahram replaced Bobo's non-Kashkai group! “[10, page 2].

In another letter, Mulla Mirza Zayniddin was appointed chairman of the Khoja Nihal Madrassah. Mulla Mir Ahmad hopes for his 18-year-old son, Mulla Sadriddin, to become the publisher of Khoja Nihal Madrassah. People who know the monthly income of this bookkeeper say that if their income is better than a year, they will be less than or equal to 70. Your Excellency let me explain to myself that I am in the mood [page 11, page 3].

My Excellency, from Mulla Abulfazl Suhur Mufti Mudarris Tursunjan, my Majesty, my Majesty, my humility and humiliation, as well as humiliation and dissatisfaction, let me gladden, The son of Akhund Mulla Abulhay Khoja Sadr Mufti was appointed to the readership of Govkushan madrassah, Mulla Sirajiddin. After leaving his post, the reader's place in this madrassa was vacant. Mulla Ibadullah hopes to continue as a reader in this madrasah. It was concluded that if he had been a publisher, he would be busy with the lifelong blessings of his family. In summary, the analysis of these letters indicates that calligraphy and bookstore, bookstores, and an important role in the cultural life of the Bukhara Emirate. These places are worthy of the people who have been recommended by the admirers. In general, the letters are a source of valuable information in the Bukhara Emirate, in studying books and bookshelves. Sensuality, fame, lighting, bookkeeping, virtue, and sincerity.
